

AUSTRALIAN COLLEGE OF TRAINING IN HOSPITALITY SIGNS TRIPARTITE AGREEMENT WITH AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT ACCREDITED COLLEGES FOR PATHWAYS TO STUDY IN AUSTRALIA

Colombo based Institute, the Australian College of Training in Hospitality (ACTH Institute) signed a tripartite agreement with Australian based Registered Training Organisation (RTO) Eagle Wing Education and Training Pty Ltd (EWET) and Pacific Training Group (PTG)

Mr. Peter R Fernando Proprietor signed the agreement on behalf of ACTH Institute.

The purpose of this agreement is to provide Australian accredited training programs within the hospitality sector to students in Sri Lanka.

Upon completing these Australian accredited training programs, students are offered pathways to continue their further studies in Australia.

EWET provides intermediate level hospitality training to Sri Lankan students to ensure they are equipped with the skills and knowledge required to gain employment in Australia in customer service, processing financial transactions, health and hygiene and using a working in as a barista. These skills are in high demand in the Australian dynamic hospitality workforce.

By completing EWET accredited courses, students are issued with an Australian Statement of Attainment which enables them to seek pathway programs into further study in Diploma and Advanced Diploma Hospitality qualifications.

PTG is registered with the Australian Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) which allows PTG to train overseas students in Australia. PTG will offer credit transfers into their Diploma and Advanced Diploma of Hospitality Management qualifications where students have completed previous training. After being granted your Australian student visa, successful candidates will be able to study in Australia and work under their student visa conditions for up to two (2) years.

*Pictured above Left: Mr. Garry Stokes, Managing Director of Pacific Training Group. Right: Mr. Peter R Fernando Proprietor ACTH Institute Sri Lanka

Students will have access to the Australian based Migration Agents to assist in their applications for student visas. This opportunity will be an ongoing program available to students through ACTH Institute. For further information, please contact Lakshan Mathes Student Services Manager at acthnegombo@gmail.com or phone on 0312228661/0776924 991. Please visit our website: <http://www.acthstudy.lk>

For more information about the Australian Registered Training Organisations please visit: Eagle Wing Education and Training: <https://training.gov.au/Organisation/Details/91365>

Pacific Training Group: <https://training.gov.au/Organisation/Details/110071>